STIPULATION AND MOTION TO WAIVE FINAL HEARING

The parties to the above-captioned action ask the Court to grant a Final Order without a final hearing. The parties agree as follows:

- 1. The parties were joined by marriage or civil union on:
Date of marriage
at City, state, country where marriage took place
2. The parties separated on and have lived separate and apart since then. There is no reasonable probability that they will resume their marital / civil union relationship.
3. When the Complaint was filed:
Plaintiff resided in County, Vermont.
Defendant resided in County, Vermont.
4. Residency in Vermont
Plaintiff has resided in the State of Vermont for at least twelve consecutive months.
Defendant has resided in the State of Vermont for at least twelve consecutive months.
5. The parties have submitted a Final Stipulation to the Court. The terms of the Stipulation resolve all issues in this action. The parties ask the Court to incorporate all the provisions of the Final Stipulation into a Final Order.
6. Both parties are aware of their right to appear before the Court for a final hearing. Both parties knowingly and voluntarily waive their right to appear in person before the Court.
7. Neither party is the subject of a final abuse prevention order in a proceeding between the present parties.
8. Each party has entered into all stipulations freely and voluntarily.

9. The parties have exchanged all financial information, including, but not limited to, information about income, property, assets, and debts.

10. Children of the Marriage or Union:

- The parties have no minor children.
- The parties have minor children who are either children born into the relationship or other children for whom there is or may be a duty of support under 15 V.S.A. § 658.

11. Complete this paragraph only if there are minor children of this relationship:

Fill in Names and Dates of Birth for all minor children:

Name of Child	DOB	Name of Child	DOB
Name of Child	DOB	Name of Child	DOB
Name of Child	DOB	Name of Child	DOB

Check all boxes that apply:

- Both parties are represented and have been assisted by counsel with respect to their Final Stipulation.
- The Final Stipulation includes a parenting agreement that provides for parental rights and responsibilities, and addresses such matters as parent-child contact, transportation, medical care, and schooling.
- The parenting agreement calls for one parent to have sole parental rights and responsibilities.
- The parenting agreement calls for shared, joint or divided parental rights and responsibilities. The parents hereby state that they have been and will continue to be able to communicate effectively and work together cooperatively in matters affecting the child or children. The Final Stipulation includes a mechanism for making decisions regarding the children, including a provision requiring mediation or arbitration in the event the parties themselves are unable to resolve disputes concerning parental rights and responsibilities.
- Both parents are in compliance with all provisions of the Final Child Support Order, a copy of which is either on file or attached to this Stipulation.

We agree to the terms of this Stipulation to Waive a Final Hearing in this action.
